

Historical Marker - L2179 - Gordon Beach Inn (Marker ID#:L2179)

Front - Title/Description

Gordon Beach Inn

Built in 1924 by Louis and Lena Gordon, and expanded four years later, Gordon Beach Inn was the centerpiece of the Jewish resort subdivision of the same name. The Gordons operated the inn for a decade before losing it during the Great Depression. Robert Miller, an African American and a former Chicago alderman, purchased the property in the 1960s as Gordon Beach was integrating. The inn was restored in 1991 to its 1920s appearance.

Significant Date:

Two World Wars and the Depression (1915-1945)

Registry Year: 2006    Erected Date: 2009

Back - Title/Description

Marker Location

Address: 16220 Lakeshore Road

City: Union Pier

State: MI    ZipCode:

County: Berrien

Township:

Lat: 41.82623300 / Long: -86.69894700

Web URL: