

Historical Marker - L2180 - E. S. Swayze Drugstore (Marker ID#:L2180)

Front - Title/Description

E. S. Swayze Drugstore

E. S. Swayze opened a drugstore on this site prior to 1870. When the store burned in 1874, Swayze built this one. Members of the Free Methodist Church used the second-floor meeting hall for services from 1887 to 1890. In 1903 Masonic Lodge #401 and the Order of the Eastern Star bought the building, which they owned until 1970. This intact commercial building is listed in the National Register of Historic Places.
