

Historical Marker - L279 - Tom Walker's Gristmill (Marker ID#:L279)

Front - Title/Description

Tom Walker's Gristmill

This mill, one of the last water-powered gristmills to operate in Michigan, was built in 1869. It was purchased by Tom Walker and John Browning for ten thousand dollars in 1878. From then on the Walker family was involved with the mill for three generations. Tom Walker, a grandson, took over the mill's operation in 1926. Until he retired in 1969 and sold the mill, he ground grain for no more than seven cents a bag.

Significant Date:

Civil War and After (1860-1875)

Registry Year: 1974 Erected Date: 1974

Back - Title/Description

Marker Location

Address: 8507 Parshallville Road

City: Parshallville

State: MI ZipCode:

County: Livingston

Township: Hartland

Lat: 42.69100700 / Long: -83.78192000

Web URL: