

Historical Marker - L2092 - Cleveland Park Pavilion (Marker ID#:L2092)

Front - Title/Description

Cleveland Park Pavilion

In 1930 automobile pioneer Harry M. Jewett donated twenty acres of land and money to Rose City for a park. By July 1931 local businessmen had created the park with tourist cabins, a baseball diamond and this pavilion. The Ogemaw County Herald hailed the park as "second to none in the state and other parts of the country." The Cleveland Park Pavilion, with its stone chimney and four stoves, continues to serve as an open air kitchen and dining hall.

Significant Date:

Two World Wars and the Depression (1915-1945)

Registry Year: 2001    Erected Date: 2001

Back - Title/Description

Marker Location

Address: Cleveland Park

City: Rose City

State: MI    ZipCode:

County: Ogemaw

Township: Rose

Lat: 44.42449300 / Long: -84.11180000

Web URL: