

Front - Title/Description

Michigan Central Railroad Depot

Built in 1886, and conceived by Frederick Spier, the design of this granite block building was influenced by the Romanesque style of the great American architect Henry Hobson Richardson. The massive arch and two-foot-thick walls are balanced by the simple, precise detailing. Carefully preserved, this depot is a symbol of the elegance and vitality of nineteenth century rail transportation.

Back - Title/Description

Significant Date:

Industry and Invention (1875-1915)

Registry Year: 1974 Erected Date: 1975

Marker Location

Address: 401 Depot Street

City: Ann Arbor

State: MI ZipCode:

County: Washtenaw

Township: Ann Arbor

Lat: 42.28732300 / Long: -83.74266600

Web URL: