

Historical Marker - L1523 - Sandhill Cemetery (Marker ID#:L1523)

Front - Title/Description

Sandhill Cemetery

Some of Taylor's earliest pioneers are buried in Sandhill Cemetery. Members of the Wells family, the original owners of the land upon which the cemetery is located, are interred here. Nearly all of the graves, including several for veterans of the Civil War, date from the nineteenth century. Barney Letogot, a sergeant with the Twenty-fourth Michigan Infantry, fought at Gettysburg. The last burial, that of Fredericka Franke, took place in 1924.

Back - Title/Description

NO PHOTO AVAILABLE

Significant Date:

Industry and Invention (1875-1915)

Registry Year: 1988 Erected Date: 2000

Marker Location

Address: Telegraph Road

City: Taylor

State: MI ZipCode:

County: Wayne

Township:

Lat: 42.18956100 / Long: -83.26694700

Web URL: